It has been said "Happy is the soul that has something to look backward to with pride, and something to look forward to with hope."

This book is a record of the things you have done, a record of the friends you have, your classmates, and fellow students. In a time of many rapid changes, you will derive much pleasure in reviewing these school days. Many of tomorrow's leaders will need to have youth in their pockets and adventure in their hearts. Their basic challenge will be the challenge of change.

Modern progress has made the whole world a neighborhood; God has given us the task of making it a brotherhood.

Seniors in Chicago

SENIOR PROPITECY

The year 1980 has arrived and having built up my business in commercial art, I, Sharon Cole, decided it was time for a vacation.

I left Jerry Page, my capable assistant, in charge while I was away.

Having plenty of money and twice as much time, I traveled to New York. When I boarded the plane I was totaly surprised to learn that Allen Castle was the pilot. Gathering my courage, I decided to take the plane anyway.

Once aboard I found a seat and who should be sitting next to me but Joyce Hassler. I soon learned that she was a newspaperwoman for the New York Daily Times. She had been traveling all over the world writing stories on our former high school classmates. Joyce learned that Bill McKnight was a college professor at Harvard University. Bill's most brilliant student was the genius fourteen-year-old son of Jim Todd. Jim, now a successful lawyer, was completely involved in the last divorce case of wealthy debutant Dean Aldrich. As soon as her divorce is final she plans to marry the famous scientist Johnny Meyer. Johnny is presently famous for having discovered a new atom bomb that is impossible to wreck. Joyce also told me that now Mrs. Kelly Moon, along with her married husband, is a missionary in Africa's most uncivilized country of Togo. Togo was discovered by the noted explorer Darril Walje.

Joyce had recently returned from Brussels where the Olympic games were being held. It seems two of our former classmates entered the contests. Jack Stone, world famous pole vaulter, reached the incredible height of 32 feet. A world record was set at 3.2 seconds for the woman's division of the backward dash by Ardyth Nichols. It seems that Coach Raabe's training finally payed off.

The plane stopped at Indianapolis where Joyce got off to cover the thrilling Indianapolis 500.

It wasn't long before the plane stopped again in New York. That night I attended a revival at Madison Square Gardens. The place was packed when Trov Paine, the great evangelist, stepped up to speak.

The next morning, I was surprised to read in the New York Daily Times that Billy Meyer had won the Indianapolis 500. The trophy, along with two million dollars, was presented to him by lovely Cheryl Landreth who was the current Miss America. The newspaper noted that he would never have won without the assistance of the great athlete Terry Edwards.

While still scanning the newspaper, I found that my life-long friend, Sue Glenn, now Mrs. Jerry Watson, had been voted Mother of the Year. Another article that caught my eye was a story about the first woman to reach the unbelievable rank of Chief of Staff in the Navy. Her name was Berniece Cook. I also learned from the newspaper that Steve Durham's moving company was in the process of moving the Empire State Building.

After spending a restful two weeks in New York, I returned to my commercial art business. I was truly happy in knowing that all of my classmates at O.H.S. were now very successful people.

THE LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT OF THE 1965 OTTERVILLE SENIOR CLASS

We, the 1965 Senior Class of Otterville High School, being of sound mind and body do hereby declare this to be our last will and testament, hereby revoking any will or wills heretofore made by us.

I, Sharon Cole, will my ability to go steady to Jo Paul. Careful, Jo, this could lead to something permanent.

I, Jim Todd, will my craving for raw eggs to Mrs. Moran. Don't forget the cream and sugar.

I, Dean Aldrich, will my hair styling ability to Keith Furford. Look out Beatles, you've got a rival.

I, Steve Dunham, will my ability to get along with Coach Raabe to Randy Jones. Walk softly, Randy!

I, Joyce Hassler, will my driving ability to Shirley Waring. Look out pedestrians.

I, Allen Castle, will my place in the lunch line to Pam Waring. You'll never be late again, Pam!

I, Cheryl Landreth, will my basketball ability to Delores Geiser. We've got a tiger on our team now.

I, Trov Paine, will my remarkable art ability to Frances King. Don't take it too hard, Mrs. Moran.

I, Sue Glenn, will my blond hair to Mary Thomas. It's time girls have more fun.

I, Bill McKnight, will my ability to get out of school to Mike Seal. Use this wisely, Mike.

I, Kay Cramer, will my athletic ability to Joyce Moon. Remember, here she comes!

I, Jerry Page, will my typing ability to Larry Diefendorf. Try not to break my 20 word record, Larry.

I, Ardyth Nichols, will my nights at Pizavilla to Suzanne Farnett. Look out Wartensburg!

I, Johnny Meyer, will my ability to drive a different car every week to Jimmy Page. They're cheaper by the dozen, Jim.

I, Berniece Cook, will my ability to go on "crash diets" to Mrs. Edwards.

I, Jack Stone, will my ability to glue the shop windows shut and keep the tools straight to Mr. White.

I, Billy Meyer, will my ability to get run out of school to Ricky Miller. Watch out on Saturday night, Rick!

I, Terry Edwards, will my fishing ability to Jack Page. Watch out for the game warden, Jack!

We, the Seniors of 1965, leave to the Junior Class this thought... Yesterday is never good enough for today. You must take the ageless, fundamental truth and improve it every hour....

HISTORY OF THE CLASS OF 1965

In September of 1953, thirty-two tearful children entered Otterville Public School ready to embark upon the Sea of Knowledge. They were first introduced to Mrs. Kuhn who was to be their guiding light for the next nine months. They were Dian Aldrich, Susan Allee, Carl Balke, Terry Bryan, Allen Castle, Kenneth Cobb, Sharon Cole, Kay Cramer, Mike Dunham, Steve Dunham, Terry Edwards, Carol Ellison, Frank Ellison, Sharon Glenn, Sue Glenn, Jimm, Hansen, Joyce Hassler, Katy Hockady, Gary House, Cheryl Landreth, Peggy McClland, Charlotte McDowell, Dennis Mortenson, Judith Norton, Jerry Page, Jimmy Page, Troy Payne, Linda Palmer, Robert Potter, David Stephens, Herman Volmer, and Darryl Walje.

In the second grade we gained Billy Meyer and Jack Stone. We were sorry to lose Dennis Mortenson, Frank Ellison, Charlotte McDowell, Judith Norton, and Robert Potter.

In our third year we gained several and lost only one. The newcomers were Johnny Meyer, Bessie Peters, LeRoy Potter, Larry Stroup, and Linda Glass. Our loss was Terry Bryan.

By the fourth year we numbered thirty-six. During the year we gained Lyle Aggler, Dorothy Gerke, and Sylvia Purdy. We lost Susan Allee.

Our best year yet was our fifth year because we gained two permanent members of the class. They were Berniece Cook and Ardyth Nichols. We also gained Nancy Ahart, Patsy Ahart, and Cecil Hudson. Carol Ellison moved away during that year.

In the sixth grade, with our journey half completed, we gained Ronnie Adair, and Larry Robinson. Nancy Ahart, Patsy Ahart, Kathy Hockaday, Peggy McClland, Linda Palmer, Sylvia Purdy, Larry Stroup, Herman Volmer, and Linda Glass left our group.

Our first year in Junior High School found us totaling thirty-four with no gains and two losses. They were Kenneth Cobb and Larry Robinson.

The eighth grade found thirty-four of us eagerly awaiting graduation so we could mingle among the "big kids". We are happy to say that we lost only one of our class members, LeRoy Potter, while we gained Lavonne Mace, Larry Phillips, Judy Walters, and Raymond Walters.

In 1961 we were officially "green freshmen". All of us were a little unsure of ourselves, but in a few days we became accustomed to the procedures of high school. A nose count revealed that we had lost Ronnie Adair, Lyle Aggler, Carl Balke, Mike Dunham, Dorothy Gerke, Lavonne Mace, Judy Walters, and Raymond Walters.

Our tenth year proved that we were no longer "green freshmen" but "silly sophomores", and history will show that we lived up to that name. During the year we gained Judy Marcum and lost Jimmy Hansen and Larry Phillips.

The next year was the junior year and we were "jolly juniors". We were old enough to have some authority in school, but still had not been burdened with all the responsibilities of a senior. The only saddening event was the loss of Allen Castle, Gary House, Cecil Hudson, Judy Marcum, and Bessie Peters.

Now, at last, we have gained the rank of "sophisticated seniors". As our last year at O.H.S. flew rapidly by, we gained Allen Castle and Jim Todd. We lost one member, David Stephens, leaving a class total of twenty.

We hope now that we are ready to step into the cruel world as mature adults and hope that O.H.S. will never forget the Senior Class of 1965.

SENIOR TRIP

Eighteen seniors and their sponsors, Mrs. Frances Moran and Mr. Duane Miller, arrived in Chicago at 11:30 a. m. Saturday morning, May 8. They checked into their rooms, then prepared to take a bus tour at 2:00 p. m. They visited many places of interest including Lincoln Park Zoo and Shedd Aquarium. The Aquarium was of special interest to all. The tour was highlighted with a trip to the top of the Prudential Building.

Sunday morning found many of the seniors too sleepy to board the bus for a 9:00 a. m. tour. The ones that managed to make it saw such interesting places as the Museum of Arts and Sciences. The trip up Market Street where wares were sold in open air markets was enjoyed by all.

Sunday afternoon everyone enjoyed a boat cruise. Many interesting buildings were pointed out to them by their guide.

Monday morning found everyone out for a day of shopping. By night the suitcases were much heavier than they were when they arrived.

At 7:30 p. m. the bus picked them up at the Palmer House Hotel for a final look at Chicago. This tour took them through spots of interest such as Chinatown, Skid Row, and Old Town. The bus took them to the Union Station to await the arrival of their train.

At 5:00 a. m. Tuesday morning, May 11, the seniors arrive back in Macon. They arrived in Otterville at 8:00 a. m., tired but happy.

Everyone enjoyed the trip very much and most wished they could have stayed longer while others were glad to be at our own O.H.S.

FALL

On October 30, 1964, at seven o'clock p.m. the auditorium doors opened to the biggest and best Fall Festival ever. A great number of people streamed through the doors to try their skills at the many games and concessions.

The new dart throw stand was an added interest along with many old favorites, such as the country store, fish pond, doll rack, penny pitch, cake walk, and the basketball throw.

The magic hour of ten came very quickly, with Cheryl Landreth, senior candidate, and Carla Starke, from Mrs. Kuhn's Room, being crowned queen and princess by Kay Cramer, the 1963 Fall Festival Queen. Cheryl and Carla were escorted by Troy Payne and Mack Lawson. Leading the procession were the crown bearers, Brenda Brandenburg and Timothy Dunham from Mrs. Kuhn's Room, and Wilda Meyer and George Dowdy from Mrs. Miller's Room.

Candidates from the other grades were: Pamela Fowler and Jeff Allee, Mrs. Woodford's Room; Connie Allee and Eddie Thomas, Mrs. Griffith's Room; Brenda Hassler and David Scott, Mrs. Ash's Room; Paula Sprinkle and Jack Deuschle, fifth grade; Donna Meyer and Ronnie Otten, sixth grade; Beverly Oswald and Paul Sprinkle, seventh grade; Marlene Stover and Sammy Biggs, eighth grade; Cheryl Griffith and Gene Helmig, freshman class; Marva Herndon and Ronnie Landreth, sophomore class; and Frances King and Jimmy Page, junior class.

A double mixed sextet consisting of Dian Aldrich, Joyce Moon, Berniece Cook, Barbara Routt, Christine Erickson, Sherry Herndon, Richard Miller, Bill McKnight, Jimmy Oswald, Donnie Hassler, Larry Watring, and David Stephens sang "On the Street Where You Live" and "Good Night".

Lancelot Case . . . . .	Richard Miller
Ruddy Boles . . . . .	Larry Watring
Dr. Max Jones . . . . .	Steve Nau
Dr. Bert Stockton . . . . .	David Gerke

This was a story about dear old Auntie, who was about to leave her fortune to her worthless nephew, Lance. Veleta, Lance's cousin, would not betray him, or let her fiance, Ruddy, do so either. The humorous antics of two quack doctors and Berthana, the housemaid, added much to the enjoyment of the play.

"...If I have to break your heads with this old cane"

"Get out of here you--you parasites!"

THE BANK OF OTTERVILLE

1894

1965

Otterville, Missouri

Stability is a keynote in banking built up through sound, conservative policies. However, services and methods must change with the times. Today we are seeking to be up-to-date in our services offered and our methods of operation.

For seventy-one years the home-owned bank has gladly supplied a friendly, helpful service to the needs of this larger community.

When needed, we loan our money.

We accept your checking account in any amount.

We pay you interest on Time and Savings Accounts.

THIS BANK IS A MEMBER OF THE FEDERAL DEPOSIT INSURANCE CORPORATION
